

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.

OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, July 9th, 1870.

The Printing Contract Rescinded.

The Democratic Board of Supervisors of Yolo County have seen fit to rescind the contract with this office for doing the county printing. The price paid was $900 per year, in county script, worth in coin 87 cents on the dollar, or $787.50. Whether the precedent set by a Republican Board of paying from $1,200 to $1,500 a year for much less work has induced this step, or whether the Board conscientiously believed they were allowing too much is best known to themselves. We know it is considerably less than is paid in many counties of the State, and is none too much for what is required of the publisher. But the fact of the Board has gone forth and we shall submit with the best grace possible. We will here state, however, for the information of the friends of this paper, that when we purchased the Democrat office assurances were given by the former proprietors that the contract for the county printing would not be interfered with, at least during the continuation of the present Board of Supervisors. The county printing will still be done in this paper under the law to protect litigants. Below is a copy of the notice served on us by the Clerk:

Notice to the Publisher and Proprietor of "The Yolo Democrat":
You are hereby notified, that within the thirty days stipulated in the printing contract between yourself and the Board of Supervisors of Yolo County, the said Board will discontinue, and rescind the said contract. By order of the Board of Supervisors.
Witness my hand, with my official seal hereunto affixed, at Woodland, in the County of Yolo, this 6th day of July, A. D. 1870.
E. BYNUM, Clerk.

THE CELEBRATION IN WOODLAND.
The day was glorious, but we have seen more enthusiastic celebrations than that of Monday last. The programme was gone through with as published. The day was ushered in by the firing of cannon, and the brass band was out early discoursing patriotic music. About 11 o'clock a large number gathered in Washington Hall to hear the Oration and reading of the Declaration of Independence. C. P. Sprague, Esq., was called to the chair, the President of the Day having failed to come to time. Rev. J. N. Pendragon opened the exercises with an earnest invocation for Divine favor. Mr. Freeman being incapacitated by sickness from reading the Declaration, his place was supplied by A. E. Wagstaff, after which Judge Johnson delivered a patriotic and eloquent oration well suited to the occasion. The trying times of the fathers were portrayed in eloquent language—how they fought to attain for us the blessings of political and religious freedom, etc. As the orator warmed with patriotic fire the audience listened with wrapt attention and the invocation to the young men to perpetuate our glorious institutions, as were many of the eloquent passages, was received with applause. In the evening the grand dedication ball came off in magnificent style, nearly one hundred couple being present who enjoyed the fascinations of the ball-room till in the " wee wee" hours. The supper at the Overland House was a magnificent feast, gotten up in Mr. Foreman's well known style, who, as a successful caterer to the "inner man," has few superiors. The band, composed of Messrs. Wood, Boulton, Bently and Simpson, was all that could be desired and filled the large hall to perfection, the bugle of Mr. Boulton adding greatly to the effect. Washington Hall was fifty inaugurated, and the Initiatory ball on the Fourth of July, 1870, will long be remembered as a time of real enjoyment by all who participated.

IMMENSE FRAUDS.—Radical revenue officials, East, West and South, are implicated in frauds upon the Government amounting to more than five millions. New Orleans supplies the particulars of one series of frauds amounting to two millions, and New York those of another of one million and more. These unfaithful and rascally officers were appointed by Grant on the "truly loil" principle, and while they support his Administration they may steal as much as they please. "Loyalty" before honesty is the new motto.

DISCOURSED.—At a mass meeting of colored citizens of Omaha, recently, resolutions were passed withdrawing from the Republican party and denouncing it for its action in the late election, and declaring their intention to have nothing further to do with the party. This is hard on the "man and brother," to have to withdraw from the protecting care of the Republican party. Perhaps the paper from which the above is learned will furnish information as to the cause of the rupture?

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of the Marin News, published at San Rafael by James L. Rice, editor and proprietor. It is neatness itself, typographically, and is, of course, under friend Rice's control, Democratic or nothing. We wish the News abundant success, and congratulate the Democracy of Marin on having secured an editor who will give them a good paper all the time.

WHEAT MARKET.—In consequence of the decline in the foreign market, wheat is dull here at $1.50 per 100 lbs. F. S. Freeman has shipped from this point during the week 600 tons.

PORT OF ENTRY.—Portland, Oregon, has been declared a port of entry, and the merchants are preparing bonded warehouses.

Pacific Methodist College.

A few weeks ago it was stated in the paper that the Pacific Methodist College, in accordance with a vote of a quorum of the Trustees (not a majority of all the Trustees), was to be removed from Vacaville, Sonoma county, to Santa Rosa, Sonoma county, the people of the latter place having made liberal offers to induce the removal. The institution was suffering from financial embarrassment and it became imperative that something be promptly done for its relief. But the people of Vacaville and vicinity were not willing that it should be removed, and set to work to bring about a reconsideration of the action of the Trustees, which was effected so far as to leave the matter open for a stated period, allowing Vacaville and Santa Rosa to compete for the permanent location of the College by seeing which would raise the largest amount as an endowment fund for its benefit. The contest is now going on. Rev. T. H. B. Anderson of Suisun, is laboring in this vicinity, and as we learn from him, with very fair success, many friends of the institution having subscribed liberally to retain it at Vacaville. Rev. W. H. Compton is also working in conjunction with Mr. Anderson. They propose to raise funds by calling upon the friends of the Pacific Methodist College in the Sacramento Valley, particularly in Solano, Colusa, Butte, Sutter, Yuba and Yolo counties, and if a sufficient sum be subscribed, this valley will still retain one of the best educational institutions in the State; otherwise it will without doubt be removed. We do not believe this will be permitted, and ask the friends of educational advancement to step promptly forward with their subscriptions so as to secure the great advantages to flow from it. Suppose Hesperian College were removed from Woodland, what would be the effect? Undoubtedly property, not only in Woodland, but for miles around, would decrease in value at least ten per cent. The benefits and advantages derived from these institutions of learning are well known to our people—they cannot be dispensed with. Let the well-to-do people in the counties named be liberal with their subscriptions and the Pacific Methodist College will still be one of our institutions, whose influence for good will be felt in many ways.

Sharp and Savitt.

In "The Free-love Banditti," The Old Guard, for July, has a most interesting attack upon the Tribune and independent writers, and their friends, using the McFarland case as a text. It assumes that the trial was of Samuel Sinclair, Mrs. Calhoun and the rest, and analyzes the evidence of the parties with great keenness and effect. The paper concludes as follows:

There is one thing in connection with the case which is particularly notable, and that is the combination to convict McFarland. One of the stockholders of the Tribune, Ayer, the noted nostrum maker, contributed the price of four hundred boxes of his quack pills towards the expenses of the prosecution—that meaning of course, the retention of private counsel and the fermenting out of witnesses; and both Greeley and Sinclair professed their willingness to contribute to the same fund, if needed. All this when the man who has the evidence of Richardson's letter, showing that he thought McFarland insane, and expected to be shot in one of the prisoner's paroxysms of insanity. The guilty wife, in her statement, confesses the theory of madness. The highly respectable and exceedingly virtuous members of the Free-love assert that McFarland is a lunatic, and in happy ignorance of law, ask the Governor to exercise the power of an absolute monarch in the matter; one or two newspapers of the baser sort in the interest of the people, echo this ludicrous demand. And yet we find all of them laboring, some by contribution of money, others by endeavoring to poison public opinion, and a part by giving a venomous tone to their testimony, to cause the same lunatic to be hanged, or, as Mrs. Stanton says, "hung." Can we conceive of a greater piece of villainy than this?

Here we have Sinclair, Johnson, Brick Pomeroy and the devil, with the tag, tag and bait of the Free-love gang, all in the same plot. How can we, who have honest looks upon the Greeley, who have honest looks upon the marriage bond as sacred, check-by-jowl with those who see nothing in a vile specimen of epistolary literature beyond a bit of impudence and folly? A man who upon more than one occasion, has shown himself possessed of magnanimous impulses and a large heart, leading off in the attack of men and women who so loved the spite of our dogs, and give evidence of having souls as small as that of a million of them might dance a polka, without jostling each other, on the point of the finest caricature.

But the effort has failed. So will the efforts now making to vilify the man they failed to murder under the protection of law. These people have been tried and convicted, and they must stand for all time to come in the pillory of public opinion. They stand there the scorn and scorn of the gazer. The jury did their duty well. Henceforth, when men violate the sanctity of their family, and pollute the household hearth, they take their lives into their hands. For men to be shot down like any other foul beast of prey; for their aiders and abettors, the deeper damnation of public censure. And when in the time to come, the double orphan—the children of the dead adulterer and the children of the five adulterers, rise to years of discretion, the curses they rain upon the guilty woman whose mingled vanity and lust caused this shameful chapter in our domestic annals, will fall also on the moral banditti who have for years fostered and stank in the midst of a disgusted community.

DOUBLE ASSAULT.—O. C. Newcomb on the 5th instant voluntarily pleaded guilty of assault and battery, was fined by Justice Peterson $7, which he paid, and was discharged. He was on the 7th, indicted by the Grand Jury on two separate charges of assault and battery—one upon his wife and the other upon Christian Barth, a restaurant-keeper—was held in the sum of $500 on each charge, to appear in the County Court on Monday next, when his case is set for trial.

REMOVED.—Judge J. H. Thompson has removed his law office to the Woodland House, a few doors east of the postoffice.

Small Business for Railroads.

CACHE CREEK, July 3d, 1870.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: I notice in the Valley Recorder a good article on low fares on Railroad lines, showing the pecuniary advantage to be derived by railroads carrying passengers at low rates. My object in alluding to that article was not so much to commend it as to call attention to a practice on the California Pacific R. R. which looks to me to be beneath the dignity of a railroad company, and is especially condemned in an agricultural district. The case is this: a few days ago a farmer broke a piece of machinery on his threshing; he took it up, weighing about fifteen pounds, proceeded to the road, purchased a ticket for Sacramento, and in getting into the car the conductor informed him he would "take charge of that piece of iron;" the farmer gave it up, and it was placed in the baggage car; at the end of his route he could get it only by paying 50 cents freight. The Railroad Company may think this is all right, and may make a little extra out of it; but I doubt very much if the officers of the Company know anything about it. Every day we see out of the country, and the parties going to Sacramento, ask the parties "why not travel on the railroad?" the answer is, invariably, "I want to get some little article which I cannot buy in the country, and I had to go to the wagon to bring it home." With way fares at a high figure, and such petty extra charges as these, the railroad is losing favor and friends, and without doubt materially lessening its own receipts.

GOD'S MESSENGERS.

The following poem by W. W. STONE, Principal of the Woodland Public Schools, was read in the Colusa Sun of a late date:

Sitting in my cottage dreaming, Thinking of those like visions seeming, Flooding in and flooding out,
Through the brain,
Bearing back the days of yore;
Joy and pain!

Olden loves and memories flying, Flying on breezes sighing, Dying,
Tales of sadness, tales of joy,
All around,
Spirits cheer or thoughts annoy
By their sound.

Then I sat, and drowsy wandered, Wandered,
Led by spirits white and sauntered, Fondled,
Pondered on the life behind—Wanted to see
Lashed I now the human kind, Full of strife!

Now the soul the body spurning, Spurning,
Madly strove for freedom burning, Yearning,
Longing for the life beyond,
Over there,
Where we'll know no sinful bond, Nor despair.

While I sat a sound recalled me, Called me,
And the while I sat enthralled me, Paled me,
On the roof I heard a sound
On the ear,
Knock so long and soft rebound Loud and clear.

A moment more and then I thought, Thought,
A passing breeze had idly caught,
And brought,
Pendant from a tree
To the roof,
Message true from God to me, Here the proof.

Ab, methought, 'tis God is knocking, Knocking,
As my thought away were flocking, Flocking,
Flinging off from duties here,
But begun,
Flinging off with naught to fear, Duty done.

So in life when we're astray, Astray,
And carry souls our hearts away,
For pray,
Angels words that watch above Over us all,
Bearing strength and holy love,
On our wall.

TRUE FRIENDS.

'Tis not when sunbeams brightly shine And clouds are round the sky, When happiness and peace abound And troubles are but few,
'Tis not the time to know our friends—The false ones from the true.

But when the skies are overcast,
And threatening clouds appear,
With thunder crashing over our heads, And lightning flashing near;
The true friend comes to our aid,
To all our hearts with cheer.

'Tis then, when sad clouds the brow And all around seems drear, The true ones from our sides will seek—
The coming storm they fear, Their arms around us will they throw, The tempest drawing near.

And so, amid the darkest storm, True friendship's love is tried;
As clouds the light of day we see,
By us they will abide,
And neither storm nor enemies Shall part them from our side.

And when the storm has passed away,
The sky again is blue,
The sun again looks down with pride,
And our foes are few,
And think 'twas worth the storm to know Our true friend from our foe.

Miscellaneous Items.

The ladies say it is not a bit tiresome to run up a bill. Distance is nothing in such cases.

There was a single order received from New York for 30,000 tickets in the Mercantile Library Gift Concert.

The subject of a colored gentleman's discourse at the Fifteenth Amendment celebration in Indianapolis, was: "The White Element in our midst."

The city of Quebec was visited by a great conflagration on the 24th ult.
Over 300 houses were burned to the ground, and thousands of persons left homeless.

A FEW days ago, a little girl in Ithaca, just before she died, exclaimed: "Pappa, take hold of my hand and help me across." Her father had died two months previous.

The Siamese-like twins, lately born in North Carolina, have been buried.
The doctor operated upon them, by cutting the cord that bound them, and they went dead under the operation.

A dog at Hartford deliberately walked into the State House yard, and held its head in the water in the basin until life was extinct. Nobody knows whether it was domestic infidelity or temporary insanity.

The record says business is more brisk in Groville generally, than at any time during the last four years.
Those engaged in mining are doing well, the merchants and mechanics are busy, and everything denotes a healthy state of affairs.

A NEGRO judge in Alabama, when his first case came on, and every thing was ready, was told by a lawyer that he neglected to charge the jury. He rose up, put up his spectacles, and said:
"Gentlemen of the jury, I charge you half a dollar a piece; and you must pay it before the case goes on."

An Ohio quince grower has been very successful for two years past with his orchard every spring. He has a peck of coal ashes around each tree. He finds the best manure on the quince and apples, about one quart to the ground under each tree after the soil has been spaded, and another quart when the quinces are half grown.

FOUR acres of the upper end of Memphis lately slid into the river in one body, causing a great commotion among the boats at the landing and alarm among the people in the vicinity.
They thought a first-class earthquake was swallowing the city up. The land made a great wave which crushed and sunk several boats and flat boats, but beyond this did no damage except in the sudden fall of somebody's real estate.

WENDELL PHILLIPS is in favor of Sumner and Revels as the next Presidential ticket. Theodore Tilton prefers Butler and Revels. Revels is clear out of the ring. He is as little thought of as Grant. The Radicals are sick and tired of free love and gift horses. They want something fresh, and Revels is as fresh as a daisy and twice as odorous. There could not be a stronger ticket than this, unless there should be two negroes on it.

SOME of the streams which flow into the Arctic Ocean are remarkable for their extent and depth. The Milkenia, which lies in the British possessions, is from one to two miles wide, and is navigable for steamers for a distance of 11,000 miles up from the Arctic Ocean to Slave Lake. Colville river, in Alaska, is another noble stream. It takes its rise by one branch in the British possessions and flows across nearly the whole width of Alaska. Last summer an American trading company, it is said, ran a steamer one thousand miles from the coast on this river.

ADDRESS.

To the Nervous and Debilitated.

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little exertion excite profuse perspiration of the heart?
Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or frothy, or is itropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is there a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short-breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushing of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant, the bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you pursue your business with the same energy?
Do you feel as much confidence in yourself?
Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have your restless nights—your back weak, your knees weak, and but little appetite—and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic performing successful business men are always those whose generative organs are perfect health? Such men never complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become and are discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess.
These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases,
from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every form of disease—idiotcy, insanity, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a
Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon the prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 15 years, prepared by H. T. HELM-

ADDRESS.

Whose sufferings have been protracted from
hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt
treatment to render existence desirable: If
you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce
upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little exertion
excite profuse perspiration of the heart?
Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or frothy, or is
to the top? Or is there a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short-breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells
of fainting or rushing of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of
from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant,
the bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you
pursue your business with the same energy?
Do you feel as much confidence in yourself?
Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits
of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have your restless nights—
your back weak, your knees weak, and but
little appetite—and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases
badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever
think that those bold, defiant, energetic performing successful business men are always
health? Such men never complain of being
melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation
of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become and are discouraged; they are always
polite and pleasant in the company of ladies,
and look you and them right in the face—none
of your downcast looks or any other meanness
about them. I do not mean those who keep
the organs inflamed by running to excess.
These will not only ruin their constitutions,
but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases,
from the effects of self-abuse and excesses,
have brought about that state of weakness in
tem so much as to induce almost every form
of disease—idiotcy, insanity, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form
of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a
Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT
BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain
cure for diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female
Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in
male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consump-
blood are supported from these sources, and
the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon the prompt use of a reliable remedy.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO'S

SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867, TWO GRAND PRIZES.

Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor.
To ELIAS HOWE, JR., as the inventor; and Gold Medal for the best Sewing Machine!

The Highest Honors Ever Conferred for Sewing Machines.

This Machine has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated the world over. The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest muslin or the thickest cloth, with equal facility; and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams; it turns its own hem as it sews, sewing a seam stronger than the fabric itself. To see it hem, fell, tack, blind, cord, quilt and gather, it seems more like a living of life than a machine moved by the will of the operator. It is equal to doing every description of sewing that is required in a family; and also for seam-stresses and dressmakers it will be found invaluable. It is the best work—has no trouble in operating, and in a word, it is the most perfect Sewing Machine in use.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as other first-class machines.

A Medallion likeness of Mr. Howe is embedded in the plates of every Howe Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Sewing Machine should inquire for the Howe Sewing Machine Co., and if they are not sold in their vicinity, ad-

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, —FOR—Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of mankind, it has been higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time a complete remedy that can be given for influenza, consumption, and the dangerous affection of the throat and lungs, a provision against sudden attacks of Croup. It should be kept on hand in every family, and its use is completely safe. It is a powerful expectorant, and is sometimes useful to colds and coughs, all which are relieved with this agent for them.

Although settled consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. Its completeness in its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, has made it the most reliable of all remedies. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public speakers find great profit in its use. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.
So generally are its virtues acknowledged, that we need not publish the certificates of those here, or do more than state to the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Aque Cure,
For Fever and Aque, Intermittent Fever, Chills Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Aque, Periodical or Bilious Fever, etc., and in all the affections which arise from malarious or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does cure, and does not fail. Containing neither arsenic, quinine, bismuth, zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is nowise injurious any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the acute districts have been fully beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Its complete relief is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the patient, and where other remedies have failed.

Unaccompanied persons, either resident in or travelling through malarious localities, will be protected by taking the Aque Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the liver, or an excellent remedy, stimulating the liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines have failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and

NEW WEED
SEWING MACHINES!
"The Last and Best!"

The following is the fac-simile of the Medal awarded to the WEED Sewing Machines at the late Paris Exposition:

THE WEED SEWING MACHINE COMPANY have now at last completed their Three Standard styles of Weed Sewing Machines.

First—Their new "Family Favorite." Second—Their new light and noiseless Manufacturers' Sewing Machine. Thirdly—Their immense heavy "Manufacturers' Favorite." The three together combining the advantages of all others up to the present time, being the BEST made and doing the best work—has received throughout Europe, the States, and on this coast the First Highest Premium at each and every public Fair since 1867 (the year it was completed), where any premium at all has been given or where its strong points have been really exhibited.

There is a difference!—All the Premiums that the WEED Sewing Machine Company claim, being the first and highest Premium at the Great World's Fair at Paris, in 1867, up to the present time, see small circulars, are each and every one genuine awards, or we will forfeit $500 for each and every false claim! Other Sewing Machines have had their Premiums, but how many of them in the last two years?

This is a difference!—Says the True Chronicle: "This magnificent Sewing Machine comes forward in good time and strikes exactly the right mark." Also, the editor of the Independent says: "Such a Sewing Machine as the Weed the New F—no have never been seen." Thus the New Weed Sewing Machine is the simplest and strongest, the last, and as we believe in modern times, we may say the best Sewing Machine made, and as yet, it is the best Sewing Machine.

It is the best Tailor, Saddle's Sewing Machine for already its name is a household word both in Europe and America, and is rapidly taking the place of all other Sewing Machine central manufacture is in Hartford, Connecticut. Agents in all the principal cities of the world.

Price, from $65 to $500.
